Lesson topic

This class aims to improve comprehensive Japanese skills (4 skills) for upper elementary level students.

Lesson target

- 1.To be able to communicate giving detailed explanations and expressing feelings using sentence patterns, vocabulary and basic expressions at upper elementary level.
- 2.To be able to understand and use the basic structure of Japanese.
- 3.To be able to talk about topics related to everyday situations fluently.

Syllabus and plan

Students will complete the assigned textbook across the Upper Elementary Japanese I&II courses, completing 1 lesson across the 2 scheduled classes per week. While students are permitted to attend courses individually, it is highly recommended to attend both of the courses in succession for most effective academic results.

The objective of each course is as follows. The primary focus of this class(Upper Elementary Japanese II) will be learning and practicing sentence patterns:

I. Learning and practicing spoken expressions, II. Learning sentence patterns

*Please note some lessons in the textbook will not be covered, so please make sure to check the schedule.

The class schedule is as follows:

Class 1(4/ 9): Lesson 26

Class 2(4/16): Lesson 27

Class 3(4/23): Lesson 29

Class 4(4/30): Lesson 31

Class 5(5/14): Lesson 33

Class 6(5/21): Lesson 35

Class 7(5/28): Review and Final examination

Class 8(6/ 4): Lesson 37

8 classes (15 hours)

*Upper elementary Japanese I A&IIA: 2 classes per week for 8 weeks (30 hours at total per quarter)

Evaluation method

Students will be assessed on participation and performance in class, assignment and the final examination.

1. Class participation and performance in class 30%

2. Assignment 30%

3. Final examination 40%

*Assignments will be indicated in class.

* 70% minimum attendance is required for evaluation ; those who fail to meet this mandatory requirement will be automatically graded "F" (fail) .

Evaluation baseline

1. Class participation and performance in class: Students are evaluated whether do practices and tasks that teacher conduct in class, and communicate with class participants through the those activities.
2. Start-up task: Students should complete and submit these assigned tasks, revising class content by utilizing outside resources as instructed, by the due date.
3. Assignment: Students are evaluated whether do homework (including preparation) for each lesson properly and submit by the due date.
4. Final examination: Examination consists of the questions of grammar, vocabularies and other expressions. Students are evaluated whether understand and use these contents.

Notice (include info. on related class)

Target students:

This is an upper elementary level Japanese class. Students who wish to register for this class must complete "Elementary Japanese IB-II B" or obtained the "Upper Beginner Level" score in the GEC-JTest.

Exchange students (special auditing students) can register for this course.

Notes:

Auditors also are required to submit all assignments and participate in class activities and inform your teacher in advance when you are absent from class.

Related classes:

1. It is strongly recommended to take "Upper Elementary Japanese IA&IIA". If you cannot take the two courses, it is recommended for students to catch up the class by individual study.
2. After taking this class, it is recommended to take "Upper Elementary Japanese IB&IIB".

Review and preparation

Preparation for the class:

- Please obtain the textbooks before the class begins (see below).
- This class is conducted upon the assumption that students will spend time on revising class content. Students are required to watch the preparation video before each class.

Review for the class:

- Students are required to do homework (assignment) and submit it by due date. Even if students can't attend the class, it required to do and submit the homework according to class schedule. We will explain the homework in class.
- For effective language study, it is recommended for students to review every lesson. We will recommend materials for reviewing in class.

Kobe University requires 45 hours of study from students to award one credit, including both in-class instructions as well as study outside classes.

Students are required to prepare for each class and complete the review after each class, depending on the respective class goals.
