Class2(6/18) : Talking with close friends

Class3(6/25) : Asking for permission

Class4(7/2) : Making an application

Class5(7/9) : asking and being asked a favor

Class6(7/16) : Asking for advice

Class7(7/23) : Final examination

Class8 (7/30): Task based assignment

Evaluation method

1. Final exam 30%
 2. Performance and presentation in the class 40%
 3. Homework, daily test 30%
- *70% minimum attendance is required for evaluation; those who fail to meet this mandatory requirement will be automatically graded "F"(fail).

Evaluation baseline

1. Students should be able to obtain basic listening and conversation skills required for everyday life in Japan.
2. Students should be able to differentiate speech levels (politeness and keigo) appropriately depending on the situations and contexts.
3. Students should be able to hear out topics related to everyday situations and also be able to speak with proper pronunciation, vocabulary, grammar, and expressions.
4. Students should be able to talk about familiar matters with well-formed ideas, in a limited amount of time(1-2 minutes).

Notice (include info. on related class)

For the tuition who starts continuously with Upper Elementary Japanese Listening and Speaking B of the 1Q, please be sure to take both classes

This is an upper elementary level Japanese class. Students who wish to register for this class are recommended to complete Listening and Conversation I, Elementary Japanese Listening B or obtain a J-CAT(online placement test) score of 121 - 170.

If exchange students (as special auditing students) are allowed to register for the course , please mention it and explain prerequisite knowledge or skills.

It is recommended to also take "Upper Elementary Japanese Speaking A".
After taking this class, it is recommended to take "Upper Elementary Japanese Listening B".

Review and preparation

Students are required to listen to the Audio files from the textbook and check vocabulary (meaning and pronunciations), grammar, and expressions before the class. After each class students are encouraged to use phrase and expressions that have been covered in the class in daily life to improve their communication skills in Japanese.

Kobe University requires 45 hours of study from students to award one credit, including both in-class instructions as well as study outside classes.

Students are required to prepare for each class and complete the review after each class, depending on the respective class goals.
